The DoE are now housing all the curriculum guides/documents in a one-stop place called the EduPortal. Check this central place out at <http://edapps.ednet.ns.ca/eduportal> You will need your Employee Number as found on your payroll information to enter the site. Talk With Our Kids About Money (TWOKAM)

On Wednesday, April 15, 2015, The Canadian Foundation for Economic Education (CFEE) hosted an online learning opportunity for students and their families to talk and learn more about financial literacy. The site <http://talkwithourkidsaboutmoney.com/> has sample lesson plans, fun activities and learning opportunities to engage junior high students in discussions about money and personal finances at home and in school. Financial literacy is a topic that is going to be aligned with new learning opportunities in the near future and already is a unit of study that all students in high school will receive via their mathematics courses that they take.

Approved Local Courses. It has been confirmed with PowerSchool staff that all locally developed courses that were approved for the 2016/2017 school year are automatically approved for 2017/2018 unless the board has requested a course be discontinued, which we haven't. Some courses (Psychology 12 for example) still have the Expiry Date as June 2017 in Power School and principals are seeing this and thinking they are not available. A ticket was sent to have those Expiry dates removed and replaced with June 2018.
